Subject :- Grant of Liberalised Family Pensionary Awards to the Casualties occurring during the Himalayan Expeditions

Sir,

I am directed to refer to this Ministry's letter of even number dated 24th January 1986 sanctioning 90% of the liberalised pensionary awards as contained in this Ministry's letter No.200847/Pen-C/71, dated 24th February 1972, in addition to the DCRG, to the families of Defence Services Officers who died in the Army Mount Everest Expedition 1985 and the Sixth Himalayan Car Rally 1985. The President is now pleased to decide that these orders will also be applicable in the case of Defence Service Officers and personnel who had died earlier in the past while taking part in the Himalayan Expeditions for which they had been specially selected and sponsored by the services HQ.

2. These orders will take effect from the date of issue and arrears for the past period will not be admissible.

3. This issues with the concurrence of the Finance Division of this Ministry vide their u.o.No. 1242/Pen/86 of 1986.

Yours faithfully,

( SHIVRAJ NAFIR )

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.
