No.200847/Pen-C/71
Bharat Sarkar,
Raksha Mantralaya,

New Delhi, the 11th October, 1972.

CORRIGENDUM

Subject : Liberalised pensionary awards for war widows and war disabled servicemen.

Reference Ministry of Defence letter No.200847/Pen-C/71, dated 24th February 1972, as amended by Corrigendum of even number, dated the 22nd April 1972.

2. In Section 'A' of the Annexure I to letter as amended,

(i) before the existing Note 1, the following Note shall be inserted :

"Note 1. If, on a representation made by either or both of the parents of a deceased officer, Government, after making such investigation as they may deem necessary, are satisfied that the officer, while he was alive, was contributing towards the maintenance of the parents and that the widow receiving the special family pension is not doing so, then Government may, at their discretion, divide the special family pension between the widow and the parents in such proportion as they may deem fit, provided that the share of either or both of the parents, as the case may be, shall not exceed the amount of dependant pension which would have been admissible to them (if the means limit had not been applied), at the rate prescribed in the Pension Regulations, as if the officer had died as a bachelor but not in action, and his death had been accepted as attributable to service factors, and that the share of the widow shall not be less than the amount of special family pension (including children allowance and education allowance for children, where admissible) which would have been admissible to her at the rate prescribed in the Pension Regulations, as if the officer had not been killed in action, but his death had been accepted as attributable to service factors; "

P.T.O.

(ii) the existing Notes 1 and 2 shall be renumbered as Notes 2 and 3, respectively.

3. This issues with the concurrence of Ministry of Finance (Defence) vide their u.o. No.1559-DFA(AG) of October 1972.
