Government of India/Bharat Sarkar,
Ministry of Defence/Raksha Mantralaya,
New Delhi, the 14th August 1974.

To

The Chief of the Army Staff.

Subject:- Grant of ordinary family pension under AI 2/S/64 to widows/children of certain categories of Army personnel.

Sir,

I am directed to state that the President has been pleased to decide that such of the individuals as were paid special gratuity under para 7(b) of AI 2/S/64, as originally worded, will, on their re-employment/re-enrolment in the regular Army (including DSC), be required to refund the gratuity, provided they are governed by the provisions of Regulation 121(a) and 267(d), Pension Regulations for the Army Part I (1961) and have got married/re-married during re-employed service. This will, however, apply only in cases where the individuals had been discharged from re-employed service prior to 10th September, 1970. The gratuity will be recovered from them at the rate of 1/3rd of their pension. As regards individuals of the above categories who are discharged from re-employed service on or after 10th September 1970 but who had not opted to be governed by the orders existing prior to 10th September 1970, the amount of special gratuity would be recovered from the Death-cum-Retirement gratuity payable to them irrespective of the fact whether they were married/re-married or not during re-employed service.

2. It has further been decided that JCOs who had retired with a pension before 1st January, 1964, and who were/are re-employed in the DSC on or after that date, will be accorded the same treatment in the matter of family pensionary benefits as admissible under AI 2/S/64 to re-employed OR pensioners. In other words, the provision contained in para 1(iii) of AI 2/S/64 will not apply in the case of these re-employed JCOs.

3. This issues with the concurrence of Ministry of Finance (Defence) vide their u.o.No.4427-Pen of 1974.

Yours faithfully,

( P.S. VIMAL )

Avar Sachiva, Bharat Sarkar.
